

Elandry Firgiawan

Fullstack Web Developer | Software Engineer

+6282236945632 | <https://www.linkedin.com/in/elandry-firgiawan/> | elandryfirgiawan@gmail.com

Results-driven Full Stack Developer, Linux Server Administrator, and IT Support professional with 1 year of hands-on experience in developing, deploying, and maintaining web-based systems and Linux server environments. Skilled in Laravel, Vue.js, React.js, PHP, JavaScript, MySQL, Ubuntu and Debian 13 Linux, VPS management, SSH, CyberPanel, Git deployment, and SSL configuration. Experienced in database design, RESTful API development, server administration, troubleshooting, system deployment, and technical support. Proven ability to manage applications throughout their lifecycle, from system planning and development to production deployment and maintenance. Committed to delivering secure, reliable, and scalable technology solutions that improve operational efficiency and business productivity.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

PT QMB New Energy Materials – Morowali, Central Sulawesi Mei 2026 – Present
Fullstack Web Developer – Part-time (Remote)

PT QMB New Energy Materials is a nickel processing and new energy materials company operating within the Indonesia Morowali Industrial Park (IMIP), supporting industrial digitalization through web-based business applications.

- Delivered end-to-end full stack solutions, from database design and backend development to frontend implementation and deployment
- Built and maintained RESTful APIs using Laravel to support authentication, user management, test execution, and result processing.
- Collaborated with project stakeholders to gather requirements, implement features, and improve system functionality.
- Designed and optimized MySQL database structures, including migrations, seeders, and relational data models.
- Configured and managed Ubuntu 24.04 VPS servers with CyberPanel for application deployment and hosting.
- Designed and developed the complete system architecture, covering both frontend and backend development.
- Implemented Git-based deployment workflows for efficient version control and application updates.
- Administered hosting environments using CyberPanel for domain, website, and server management.
- Developed responsive user interfaces and dashboards to improve user experience and accessibility.
- Deployed frontend applications using Vercel to improve scalability and deployment efficiency.
- Managed SSL certificate installation and renewal to ensure secure HTTPS communication
- Performed server monitoring, log analysis, troubleshooting, and performance optimization.
- Configured secure server access and administration using SSH.

PT Baoshuo Taman Industri Investment Group – Morowali, Central Sulawesi Nov 2025 – Mei 2026
HRIS Staff IT Support and Backend Developer – Full - time (On Site)

PT Baoshuo Taman Industri Investment Group (Huabao Indonesia) is a subsidiary of Zhenshi Group, which has been operating a nickel smelter processing facility since 2022 within the 20,000-hectare Huabao Industrial Park.

- Built and optimized RESTful APIs for a Mobile Recruitment app to streamline candidate onboarding, authentication, and application workflows.
- Developed employee data models including tenant, department, division, BPJS status, and dependent classification.
- Configured and maintained web application environments using Laravel, MySQL and Git on Debian Linux.
- Designed database structures and business logic for recruitment processes from onboarding to hiring.
- Designed relational database schemas (ERD) for scalable internship and legal management systems.
- Implemented admin panel using Filament for managing internship data, users, and content.
- Developed Legal Case Management System with 7 access levels for structured workflows.
- Designed HRIS database schema for BPJS services, supporting 8,000+ employee records.
- Supported IT operations by troubleshooting hardware, software, and internal user issues.
- Contributed to digitalization by transforming manual processes into web-based systems.
- Built Internship Portal to separate intern and employee data for better organization.
- Developed RESTful APIs for authentication, business logic, and data processing.
- Collaborated with frontend developers by integrating APIs with Vue.js.
- Built backend systems using Laravel, Filament, Vue.js, and MySQL.

SMP 2 Tanantovea - Palu, Central Sulawesi Mei 2025 – Jul 2025
Fullstack Web Developer – Part-time (Remote)

provides secondary education focused on developing students' academic potential and character to foster a competent and competitive future generation.

- Manage hosting, domain, and website configuration to ensure the website runs live properly
- Build and customize frontend pages using WordPress and Elementor plugin.
- Configure WordPress themes, plugins, and content management features.
- Create website structure and system flow based on school requirements.
- Design web UI for user-friendly and responsive interfaces
- Perform testing, maintenance, and content update support
- Perform testing, maintenance, and system optimization.
- Deploy the website using Hostinger for deployment

LANGUAGES

Professional Working Proficiency in English, Native in Bahasa Indonesia.